

"Facts matter.
The prevalence of mis-, dis-, and mal information
online makes it tempting to think that nothing can be trusted, but that is false. Facts
are everywhere;
it's up to us to detect and amplify them."

– Jennifer LaGarde and Darren Hudgins

DEVELOPING DIGITAL
DETECTIVES

Can you spot the difference?

MIS

DIS

MAI

Information created and shared...

- Before all the facts are known
- Without knowing it is false
- With knowledge of inaccuracies/manipulation
- With the intention to deceive
- With acceptance of potential harm
- With intentional blending of factual information with known inaccuracies or manipulation
- With factual content presented out of context with the intention to deceive
- With intent to cause harm